

REP international

15, rue du Dauphiné F-69960 Corbas - France Tel: + 33 472 215 353 Fax: + 33 472 512 235 www.repinjection.com Simplified Joint Stock Company with a capital of 2,500,000.00€ 400 131 801 RCS LYON VAT FR 45 400 131 801 A.P.E n° 2896 Z - ISO 9001

TRAINING

Operating an injection press

Training G9/G10

Training course program

CONTENT

- Introduction to the training course
- Overview of the injection process
- Functional and technical overview of the press
- Overview of the Human/Machine Interface (HMI)
- Management of start-ups, settings and production shutdowns
- How to use the optional equipment
- Introduction to the safety devices
- Fault interpretation guide on molded parts

THE PEOPLE CONCERNED

- Machine set-up engineers
- Methods technician
- Maintenance technician

Prerequisites

- General technical knowledge
- The trainees should already have experience in adjusting a rubber injection molding machine

TRAINING OBJECTIVE(S)

2 DAYS (14H)

REP, Corbas (69)

(on request)

- To give an overview of the possibilities of the machine
- To enable the trainees to familiarize themselves with the controls and to program and adjust the machine.

TAILOR-MADE AND CUSTOMIZABLE TRAINING

INFORMATION AND SUBSCRIPTION

It si possible to sign-in directly from our website:

> https://www. repinjection. com/services/ training.

For a customized session on customer site, quotation on request.

Deadline to access to the training: 6 weeks before the course starts.

- \Rightarrow The training will be conducted for a minimum of 3 to a maximum of 6 people.
- ⇒ The training will take place in two parts. Theoretical training provided in the classroom, and practical training in the workshop with access to adapted machines and equipment.

Please note that the training may be postponed in case of health constraints or absences.

